RULES ON TABLE DECORATION

Amateur Needs No Help From the Professional If He Will Follow These Hints.

It is not necessary to have one's table decorated by a professional if the amateur will remember a few excellent rules of table decoration.

Do not have clashing colors. They jar on the eye like a "cathartic" sermon on the ear. To promote this harmony take into consideration the color of the rooms and of one's principal china; likewise, unless your complexion is of the best, your own looks.

A one-color scheme is always safe, but should have a background of green in foliage or trailing vine. In combination do not try to be bizarre, and remember that all shades of the same color will not harmonize.

Pink and lavender are charming together, and far less commonplace than blue or pink. Dark blue and purple and pale yellow are effective; so, oddly enough, are orange and scarlet, as scarlet sage and golden rod.

Further consider the season of the year. A vivid decoration that would look well in the fall or winter would be ugly in hot weather. Likewise would be ugly in your color scheme for the lighting standpoint—natural or artificial.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Lacquered brass can be cleaned by washing in hot water, and a little soap may be added if necessary.

Chocolate made before the guests arrived and put in the fireless cooker was piping hot two hours later, when it was served.

Every kitchen should have strips of carpet placed on the floor. Rag rugs are the very best to buy, as these wash well and last for years.

Olives, stoned and chopped and mixed with fresh butter or heavy cream, and cream cheese, make one of the most delicious of sandwich fillings.

If a pair of shoes has become stiffened by walking in the wet, they should first be washed with warm water and then have oil well rubbed into them.

A simple and excellent way to remove dirty marks from a raincoat is to cut a raw potato in slices and rub it well on the marks. It will also remove mud stains from dress skirts, children's coats and men's trousers. To mend a slightly broken plaster article make a solution of camphor and alcohol thickened with shellac. This must be applied hot to the edges of the pieces to be cemented, and the pieces must be held together until the liquid has cooled and hardened.

Cream of Tomato Bisque.

Put one quart of tomatoes into a saucepan with a small onion sliced. Cook twenty minutes, then rub through a sieve and return to the fire to keep hot. Meanwhile boil one quart of milk in a double boiler, thickened with two tablespoonfuls each of butter and four creamed together and stir constantly until smooth and creamy. Season the strained tomato with a teaspoonful of sugar and pepper and salt to taste.

When all ready to serve add a half teaspoonful of soda to the tomatoes and then the boiling thickened milk. Stir quickly and serve at once with croutons.

Hermits.

Cream one cupful butter with one and one-half cupfuls of sugar and add one teaspoonful of vanilla, three well-beaten eggs and one-half teaspoonful of soda dissolved in one tablespoonful of hot water. Mix one and one-half cupfuls of chopped nut meats with one cupful of chopped raisins, one-half cupful of currants, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of cloves, one-half teaspoonful of ginger, and three cupfuls of sifted flour, then combine the two mixtures, drop from a teaspoon on buttered pans and bake in a moderately hot oven.

Malted Milk Fudge.

To make malted milk fudge dissolve three cupfuls of malted milk in a cupful of water, add three and one-half pounds of granulated sugar and three cupfuls of hot water. Boil until the syrup spins a substantial thread or forms into a soft ball when dropped into cold water. Beat and cool in the usual way and cut into squares. A handful of nut meats and raisins may be added just before it comes from the fire.

Veal With Almonds.

One cupful of cold chopped veal is mixed with a dozen chopped almonds, pepper and salt to taste, and bound together with a well-beaten egg. Add a dash of paprika. Next roll into small balls and set in a baking pan. Pour over the whole a generous cup of tomato sauce and cook in a fairly hot oven for twenty minutes. Garnish with watercress before serving.

Log Cabin Toast.

Saute strips of bread in clarified butter and drain. Have ready some creamed chicken. Arrange the toast strips log cabin fashion, and fill the center with the creamed chicken. Garnish with parsley.

Chicken a La Maryland.

Cut up chicken, brown each piece; then put in kettle and cook slowly until done. Serve on platter with toast points. On same platter serve corn fritters and fried bacon; also sweet potatoes fried.

FARMER'S WIFE ALMOST A WRECK

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Own Story.

Westwood, Md.—"I am a farmer's wife and do most of my own work when I am able. I had nervous spells, female weakness and terrible bearing down pains every month. I also suffered much with my right side. The pain started in my back and extended around my right side, and the doctor told me it was organic inflammation. I was sick every three weeks and had to stay in bed from two to four days.

"It is with great pleasure I tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I have followed your directions as near as possible, and feel much better than I have felt for years. When I wrote you before I was almost a wreck. You can publish this letter if you like. It may help to strengthen the faith of some poor suffering woman."—Mrs. JOHN F. RICHARDS, Westwood, Maryland.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

A Strange Story.

Argyle, Mich.—Mrs. Wm. H. Carlson, in a letter from Argyle, says: "I was almost wild with pain in my head, and other severe pains, due to womanly troubles. Cardui gave me great relief at once. Further use of Cardui raised me from my bed of agony. Cardui saved my life, and I can't be thankful enough for what it did for me." Whether seriously sick, or simply ailing, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. As a general tonic for women, to improve the appetite and build up the constitution, Cardui is in a class by itself. Those who have used it say it does the work; it relieves, it cures. Try it. Your druggist has it. —Advertisement.

NO LIMIT SET

"How large do you think a man's income should be to marry?" "Well, I feel sure I'm capable of living beyond any income, no matter how large."

BEEES FORM ROBBER BANDS.

The school of Lombroso asserts that almost every variety of human wrongdoing finds its counterpart in the crimes committed by animals.

Among the bees there is much theft. In order to save themselves the trouble of working the robbers attack the masses, kill them, rob the hives and carry off the booty when they cannot obtain it by stealth. Sometimes, having acquired an incurable taste for robbery and violence, they form regular colonies of bandits.

It is possible to reduce these tiny enemies to law and order by the simple process of giving working bees a mixture of honey and brandy to drink.

TURKS AND BULGARS.

"Sublime porte" is one of those European expressions for Turkish institutions which are never used by the Turks themselves. The Ottoman government's official title for itself is Hukuyet-i-seniye—"the glorious government." Turks do not speak of "the sultan," but of "the padishah," a Persian term meaning the "father of monarchs."

As a youth Ferdinand of Bulgaria was not very robust; his face was pale and his nerves would twitch of their own accord. When he entered the Austrian army it was as a lieutenant in the Eleventh hussars, but he was never at ease in the saddle and exchanged into the infantry.

RULING PASSION.

The taxicab driver was about to receive his sentence.

"Prisoner," said the judge, "I am satisfied there is no reasonable doubt of your guilt. The evidence shows that you drove the deceased about the city in your taxicab for two hours, then took him to a secluded place and strangled him and stole his watch. Have you anything to say before sentence is pronounced?"

"Yes, your honor." "What is it?" "I'd like to know, your honor, who is going to pay the cab hire?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
